WALK ON LEFT SIDE OF ROADS

Police and Highway Officials Advise Pedestrians to Avoid Danger

With the summer outing season in full swing, pedestrians on the highways are urged to follow the rule of walking on the left side.

Walking on the left side of the road has been advocated for some time by police and highway officials, who have made a study of automobile accidents, yet a large number of people continue to use the right side of the road when walking. This makes it impossible for them to see vehicles approaching on their side of the road.

The motorist may see the pedestrians, but he can never be sure which way they are going to turn. If he meets another vehicle just as he is about to pass a vehicle, it may be impossible for him to turn out without striking one of them.

The habit of asking for rides should also be discouraged. Police in a number of cities have often issued warnings against the practice. Most motorists would be glad to give pedestrians an occasional ride, but doing this is not necessary to get the habit of asking for rides. The so much abused that many drivers are a matter of self-protection refuse all requests to give strangers a ride.

Parents should be urged to caution their children against asking for rides. The practice is exceedingly dangerous when youngsters stand in the travelled portion of the street or highway and signal for a ride. An analysis of the motor vehicle accidents made for the recent Hipov safety conference showed that pedestrians were involved in 29,882 out of the 47,128 accidents reported in the state of New York in 1925. That of 1,891 persons killed, 1,155 were pedestrians. The report further shows that 50 per cent of the motor vehicle accidents and 66 per cent of the fatalities occurred on straight level roads.

GETTING THE MOST FOR ONE'S INCOME

The development of a plan for spending the family income to best advantage means not only better household management, but a margin with which to secure worthwhile things, and money for labor-saving devices which help the homemaker to gain time for the children, for self-improvement, or for community activities.

This is the underlying thought in miscellaneous circular No. 68-M, "Planning Your Family Expenditures," by Chase G. Woodhouse, of the Bureau of Home Economics, United States Department of Agriculture. All business concerns from manufacturing plants to the United States Government have budgets or spending plans, no different in principle from the family budget.

There is no such thing as a standard household budget. Mrs. Wood in a number of cities have often issued warnings against the practice. Most motorists would be glad to give pedestrians an occasional ride, but doing this is not necessary to get the habit of asking for rides. The so much abused that many drivers are a matter of self-protection refuse all requests to give strangers a ride.

Parents should be urged to caution

total must be compared with the estimated income, and if necessary, pruned until it is evident that all expenditures can be taken care of by the money that will be received.

Various ways of recording expenses are described, with particular attention to the needs of the farm home. The circular shows how to group the different classes of expenditures conveniently and in sufficient detail so that it will be possible later to analyze them. It concludes with a number of questions, each suggesting others which will be found useful in reviewing these records at the end of the year when making a new spending plan. Copies may be obtained free while the supply lasts by writing to the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

For every dollar invested in the liquor traffic there is $100 invested in the dope traffic. Leon F. Miner, Shiawassee County prosecutor, told the Kiwanis Club at Owosso. He added that while there is much furore about liquor, it is a pigma compared with the dope traffic. The prosecutor said that recently a package of dope was found under a culvert near an Owosso school, indicating, he said, that peddlers might be trying to induce school children to take it. This, he said, is a favorite method of obtaining dope recruits.

The aviation committee of the Board of Commerce is advertising for a piece of land near Ypsilanti to be used as a site for an airport. As the city is on the air route between Detroit and Chicago and with other routes being established, Ypsilanti business men consider that no time should be lost in establishing a suitable port there. Farmers within five miles of the city are being asked to communicate with the Board of Commerce if they have suitable fields which they desire to sell.

The Outdoors Is Yours!

Your own car makes the whole country yours—with its peace of color and coolness. Not far from your own home are scenic treasures—adventure fun—and romance. Find them! Follow the shores of sapphire lakes! Stop to fish in their cold, clear depths. Drink in the fragrance of wild flowers and scented meadows!

You will find color wherever you go—green of forests—gold of wheat fields—blue waters of lake and stream—crimson of flaming sunsets. And always the promise of the unknown luring you on! Below is a suggestion of the rich treasure of the Middle West.

- 1—Prairie du Rocher, Illinois, the only town in the United States having a commons on the old French plan. Church records date back to 1720. House of first governor of Illinois where La Fayette was entertained lived at post office. Near Evansville on State Highway No. 3.
- 2—Sully's Hill, an important wild animal preserve in North Dakota. State Highways No. 34 and No. 20.
- 3—Ecompton, Kansas, where the "Ecompton Constitution" was framed in 1857. View of Kansas and Delaware Rivers from the bluffs. Near Big Spring on Union Pacific Highway No. 10.
- 4—Storm Lake, Iowa, a beautiful resort region. State Highways No. 4 and No. 5.
- 5—Indian Territory, where of fourteen Mile Creek, Indiana. Escalator formation over 200 feet high and in one place hardly a rod wide. Near Charleston on Wonderland Way No. 24 from Madison.
- 6—Mount Baldy, one of the largest sand dunes in the world, at Saugatuck, Michigan. State Highway No. 11.
- 7—Mille Lacs District in Minnesota, where the pine forests and oak forests meet. Fishing is very good in this district. State Highway No. 18 from Brainerd follows the shore of Mille Lacs.
- 8—Sibley, Missouri, where Fort Osage was established in 1809, during Osage Indian War, one of the eastern terminals of the old Santa Fe Trail. Near Buckner on National Old Trails Road No. 6.
- 9—Trempealeau Mountain, Wisconsin, where Fremont, the French explorer, landed in 1885. Name derived from the French meaning "the hill which soaks in the water." Bold piece of scenery. State Highway No. 162 from Holmen.
- 10—Crystal Cave, near Sturgis, South Dakota, with 1,500 chambers of mystic beauty. Via Piedmont. State Highway No. 30.

Discovering scenic treasures for yourself is the best sport of all. It's easy to do for splendid highways weave their pattern smoothness over the entire Middle West. The outdoors is yours! Claim it this summer. Red Crown Ethyl Gasoline will add much to the pleasure of motoring. It "Knocks Out That Knock"—it makes carbon work for you. You'll think your engine is recreated.

The car sped backward downhill and over a 15-foot embankment, turning over and pinning Henderson and his wife under it, where they lay severely injured for more than a half hour, before Mrs. John Davidson, a passenger, extricated herself from the back seat and ran screaming down the road, finally attracting attention. Both are in a local hospital.

For every dollar invested in the liquor traffic there is $100 invested in the dope traffic. Leon F. Miner, Shiawassee County prosecutor, told the Kiwanis Club at Owosso. He added that while there is much furore about liquor, it is a pigma compared with the dope traffic. The prosecutor said that recently a package of dope was found under a culvert near an Owosso school, indicating, he said, that peddlers might be trying to induce school children to take it. This, he said, is a favorite method of obtaining dope recruits.

Who Was Swedenborg?

Emanuel Swedenborg, the son of a bishop, was the great Swedish scientist, philosopher and theologian, whose vast range of knowledge led him to reveal the macrocosm of the universe, and the microcosm of the human mind. Officially connected, by appointment of the King, with the great mining industry of Sweden, he mastered all the sciences of his time, and wrote the most useful books on metallurgy, minerals, geology, astronomy, and the human brain.

His life search was for the human soul. How his spiritual senses were opened after he was 50 years of age, that he might reveal the human soul, the life after death, and the Bible itself, may be read in the above named, uplifting, useful book.

Farm Bureau Notes

R. D. Bailey, Co. Agricultural Agent

R. D. Bailey, Co. Agricultural Agent
The requirements of a good farmer are at least four: The ability to make a full and comfortable living from the land; to rear a family carefully and well; to be of good service to the community; to leave the farm more productive than it was when he took it.

Pigs

I know where several farmers can find a supply of young pigs and shoats.

Pigs Again

Are you one of the farmers who is raising pigs in a dried-up June pasture, or did you have some foresight and provide a piece of alfalfa for pig pasture. Alfalfa makes one of the cheapest, cleanest, simplest means of growing pigs, and it is strange that more do not use it. An acre block of alfalfa will make more pasture than a row and here—dozens of pigs can use. With rings in their noses they do not injure the alfalfa. Why should these good things and better ways be so slow in coming into use by our farmers?

Clean

If anyone has a cleaner field of potatoes than Fred Anderson on Alford, Hummel he is going some. Shows what can be done even with a lot of other crops to attend to besides.

Big Difference

The County Agent is on farms practically all the time, excepting Saturdays and Sundays. He is deeply impressed by the great difference in farmers. Some have a large acreage of crops—clean, too. Others, with as good a chance, have so little. I do not see how some use their time. They accomplish so little.

Good Things to Do

(1) Keep corn and potato crops very clean so that as soon as corn is out of potatoes dug you can get lime out of the cars that we will bring in this fall at Frederic Lovells Grayling, Horigan and Roscommon, and apply it on the clean corn or potato ground. Disc or drag it in to prevent blowing or washing lime away.

The lime becomes somewhat dissolved by spring, and you can go right on and sow your alfalfa with three pecks of oats as a protection, just when you wish.

We are trying to bring in our first supply in the fall as the spring has proven to be too short and uncertain for us to get lime here and out farms in time for oats.

Go in with us this fall for lime and the heads of the colleges as to the courses of study and use of the large amount of funds furnished the colleges by the Government.

The Professor and your County Agent went all over the state demonstration farm with which the former was well pleased, as it so plainly shows what good things can be done with light soil if you go at it right.

Mr. Tito Crespi, in charge of the apostolic mission in Mexico City, placed expulsion of Mgr. Carranza, a priest, was ordered expelled.

Mgr. Crespi was given twenty-four hours to depart, but on intervention of the Italian legation the time was extended to forty hours.

U. S. Crop Area Is Cut
5 Per Cent in Five Years

Washington.—Despite a reduction of 19,000,000 acres in the harvested-crop area in the last five years, the crop area in the United States is still sufficient to maintain a large volume of exports, says the United States Department of Agriculture in an analysis of the latest census figures.

This is the first time in the history of the United States that a decrease in crop area has been shown in any census period.

Decreases in crop acreage have occurred principally in the eastern corn belt, in the corn and winter wheat belts, the eastern and southern portions of the corn belt, the hay and dairy region from Lake Michigan to the Hudson valley and in eastern Washington and California.

Increases on the other hand, have occurred in the semi-arid western portion of the great plains region, extending from southeastern Texas to Montana and beyond; in the upper portion of the Mississippi river bottoms; central Florida; southwestern Minnesota and in northern Minnesota and Wisconsin.

The reduction in crop area represents a decrease of 5 per cent for the five-year period, the 19,000,000 acres having reverted to pasture or been allowed to lie idle. During the same period, however, the acreage of forest, cut-over land and woodland increased about 8,000,000 acres.

Radio Manufacturers to Seek Broadcasting Rule
New York.—Announcement was made here that the radio apparatus section of the Associated Manufacturers of Electrical Supplies has made plans for the formation of a national radio protective committee which will call a convention to take steps to stop wave-length jumping by broadcasting stations. Similar action, it was said, had been planned by the radio manufacturers' association. This, it is believed, marks the first step by the radio industry to put broadcasting on a self-governing basis.

WRITE-UP ELICITS RESPONSE FROM THIS MAN
The devious and indirect manner in which reactions to publicity of the East Michigan Tourist association are secured is shown by many examples. One instance is worthy of mention perhaps.

The Detroit Free Press in June printed an article reviewing the contents of the E. M. T. 1926 magazine, "Vacationland." One of the subscribers of the newspaper clipped the article. The other day, he was planning a trip and wanted a copy of the magazine to help him. So he sent the clipping to the Detroit Free Press, stating he wished information. The Free Press forwarded the letter to this office and the reader is now receiving information regarding the summer time appeals of all Michigan.

MEXICO IN THROES OF RELIGIOUS WAR

Rioting in Many Sections as All Catholic Churches Are Closed.

Paul Smith's, N. Y.—Owing to the strained relations between the Church of Rome and the state in Mexico, President Coolidge has no intention for the present of lifting the United States embargo on the shipment of arms and ammunition to the southern republic. This was made known in an executive order issued from the summer White House.

San Antonio, Texas.—Hundreds of nuns, priests and teachers have crossed the border into the United States, many of the sisters disguised for fear of detention.

Mexico City.—All Catholic churches have been closed in Mexico and all Mexico is in the throes of a religious war, the outcome of which is a worry to the entire world. Rioting is reported in many sections and great loss of life is feared.

Detachments of federal troops are patrolling the streets and roads in the villages and open country of the federal district, ready to give assistance to municipal authorities of the towns and villages when disturbances arise over the religious situation. The troops, traveling in motor-cycles and automobiles, have instructions to shoot anyone offering resistance.

These steps have been taken because of reports of intense excitement in the suburbs and outlying villages, especially among the Indians.

Agents of the department of justice closed and sealed church structures, except places of actual worship, under the orders of the attorney general's office. These structures include offices of archbishops and bishops, vestries, sacristies and places where church treasures are kept. Numerous churches at this same time suspended services of their own accord.

Mgr. Tito Crespi, in charge of the apostolic mission in Mexico City, placed expulsion of Mgr. Carranza, a priest, was ordered expelled.

The order came at the direction of President Calles because the government considered his presence "inconvenient."

E. M. T. MAGAZINE USED BY AKRON STORE; BANK ALSO DISPLAYS BOOKLETS

"Vacationland" the East Michigan Tourist association 1926 magazine, is so reminiscent of the outdoors, that the M. S. Long store of Akron, Ohio, used copies of the magazine to heighten the atmosphere of a window display of camping supplies, fishing tackle, stuffed fish, etc., according to a letter received from R. C. Demary, a city official of Akron. At least 100 Akron residents will visit East Michigan this summer, Mr. Demary says.

The Central Savings & Trust Company of Akron also used the magazine for a display in connection with its vacation department.

Mr. Demary writes: "Several copies of 'Vacationland' were used by the M. S. Long store, located on the most prominent corner in the city, in connection with a window display of fishing tackle; camp supplies, stuffed fish, etc."

The booklets created quite a lot of comment and I was informed this morning that two parties had been organized to visit East Michigan as a direct result of the display and perhaps several more will follow. One party is already at Bay Port, and another left yesterday for Tawas.

"Two more parties have made arrangements to visit the Michigan National Forest in August."

"The Central Savings & Trust Co., which operates a vacation department made a neat display of the booklets and report that two or three parties will visit Michigan as a result."

"I think I am perfectly safe in saying that at least 100 people will visit East Michigan as a direct result."

Stakes were pulled at Camp Lakewood, at Kyle lake Tuesday by the young boys from Lakewood, Ohio, after about six weeks of the best outting this group has ever enjoyed. The camp was under direction of W. J. Cockayne and G. D. Cornwell of the faculty of Lakewood high school, and these gentlemen are enthusiastic of the wonderful summer they have had here this year. There were 21 boys in the party, between the ages of 10 and 16 years, and everyone was reluctant to return home, they just didn't want to leave. The delightful waters of Kyle lake have afforded the finest kind of bathing and boating, and besides the boys found the fishing entirely to their liking and many a fine small-mouth black bass found its way to their frying pans. Some of these fish were as large as 18 inches in length, which is large for this species. Besides the splendid attractions of the lake and the surrounding woods, there was horse back riding and hiking and some of the interesting places in that region were visited. On Monday last, Camp Grayling, that is conceded to be the finest military camp in America, and the home of Michigan National Guard was visited. THURSDAY, AUGUST 12, 1926

Railroad crossing accidents continue to be evidence that the American people are not superstitious and do not believe in signs.

Miss Hilda Nielsen of Flint is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Heric, arriving this forenoon.

Miss Ruth Cavanaugh and a group of fifteen young girls are spending a week camping at the McIntyre landing at Lake Margrethe.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Gillett are entertaining the latter's sister, Mrs. F. G. Stegall of Bay City, who accompanied them on their return home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Hanson and family of Detroit arrived yesterday from Detroit and are visiting the former's brother, Holger Hanson, wife and friends.

Mrs. C. J. Hathaway was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Clark during the time the doctor was looking after his optical business here. On their return home Mrs. Hathaway's mother, Mrs. Ivory, who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. Clark also returned home.

The annual review of the Michigan National Guard at Camp Grayling will be held next Sunday at 1:00 p. m. At this time all companies and units will pass in review before the commanding officers. It is a sight well worth seeing and annually thousands of outsiders come here to be in attendance.

Miss Mary Watts of Detroit, who has been a guest of Miss Jennie Anderson at her cottage at Lake Margrethe for a couple of weeks left the latter part of last week for Cleveland. Her mother, Mrs. J. B. Watts, who also was here is now taking a lake trip on the steamer Metterson of which her husband is the captain.

Mr. and Mrs. James Milne were in Saginaw the first of the week where they went to attend the wedding of Miss Pearl Byron to Mr. Alfred Zink, the latter who is superintendent of schools at Dryden, Mich. The newlyweds are spending a part of their honeymoon at Lake Margrethe, guests of the Milnes.

George Burke has just installed at his Cedar street filling station the latest device for inflating tires. All that is necessary is to set the indicator to the correct number of pounds of air pressure required and when the pressure in the tire reaches that amount the air will automatically shut off, and then all that is necessary is to put on the cap and the job is done. It saves testing several times with a tire pressure gauge and is simple to operate. The apparatus is in front of the station and is elevated so that all tires may be reached without having to drag the hose about.

Sheriff Bobenmoyer is making good use of a number of prisoners he has in jail by having them dig out some of the large stumps in the court and left yards. There were 54 of these stumps in the lawn and didn't add any to the appearance of the place. Eleven have already been removed and the holes filled and the surface sodded. Although the court yard is looking fine, it soon will be looking still better. Edwin S. Chalker is in charge of the prisoners.

Senator Karcher of Rose City was a guest at the home of the Avalanchers today.

John Hanson, a former old resident of Grayling and a brother of James Hanson and Mrs. Lars Rasmussen of this city, passed away at his home in Flint Saturday morning, following a series of operations. He was 67 years old and had resided in Flint since leaving Grayling a number of years ago. The funeral was held Tuesday and was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Rasmussen and Peter Hanson of this city. Also Mrs. Hanson's daughter, Mrs. Corvallis, Montana was in attendance. Mr. Hanson, besides his two sisters and brother, is survived by two sons, Carl and Marius of Flint. Mrs. Hanson passed away in Grayling many years ago.

Sheriff Bobenmoyer and one of the state police arrested Adolph Stancik and Ike Adams last Monday for having in their possession intoxicating liquor. Both men will be taken to federal court in Bay City today. This is the second time Stancik has been charged with violation of the prohibition law, he having been convicted in the local court a number of years ago. He was pretty cocky when brought before the justice and told the officers that he wasn't very large but that he could "kick a half dozen of them alone." He bawled out the officers and a lot of other people in general, telling what he would do. This attitude didn't get him anywhere. Sheriff Bobenmoyer soon convinced him that he wasn't half the man he believed he was, and ordered him back into his cell.

LOST ON MICHIGAN AVE. near Alexander office, woman's rust-colored all wool polo coat. Kindly leave at Avalancher office. Reward.

ONLY JEALOUSY OF AMERICA

There is more smoke than fire in this foreign debate discussion which is moving through European newspapers. The plain truth of it is, that even if we cancelled all of the debts which they owed us, the people who are building cabinets and trying to run things on the other side would have found some excuse for attack on us. The fact is we are a prosperous people, and back of this country is perhaps a little feeling of jealousy. There are very few of us after all, if our toes were worn out of our shoes and patches figure in the back of our trousers, can walk the street and applaud the well dressed person travelling happily along on the other side. It may after all, occur to our people abroad who are being annoyed in Paris and other cities, that America, where they earned the money, is a good place to spend it.

Home: A place where some woman works fourteen hours a day. Seven parts of virtue consists in the knowledge that the neighbors are watching.

GRAYLING TO PLAY ILLINOIS GIANTS

The Illinois Giants, a colored aggregation travelling through the state will play the Grayling Independents next Saturday and Sunday, August 14 and 15 at the local baseball park. Games will start at 8:30 o'clock sharp on both days.

This same organization visited Grayling a couple of years ago, and it was worth the price of admission to see the negroes perform, as they were fast and clever. Don't miss either game. "Johnny" Johnson and "Babe" Laurent will be on the pitching staff for Grayling.

KEEPING THE ELECTRICAL SYSTEM WELL-GROOMED

(By Erwin Greer, president Greer College of Automotive Engineering, Chicago, Ill.)

Discovering what is wrong when the electrical system goes bad is not the mystery that it is cracked up to be. For most of the troubles that occur are surprisingly easy to locate and remedy, and your present day motorist is no dumb-bell. But he does admit that he doesn't like to get his hands dirty and so neglects the vital points in proper upkeep. Should he do these little things adjustments and repairs could be avoided.

Loose terminals are a source of very considerable loss of efficiency. Equally important is to keep the terminals clean for clean metallic contacts over a big area is the thing to be aimed at throughout the whole system, including battery terminals and those of the starter, the dynamo, switches and cut-out. Pure vaseline will keep the battery terminals from corroding. And these terminals, if tight and well greased, will effect an enormous saving in current and freedom from breakdowns.

Lighting troubles are frequently caused by loose or dirty connections. The connections at every point should be scrutinized most carefully as the search proceeds. This applies to the fuse and switch box. An illustration of a fuse and light recently was found to be due to the fuse wire being loose at one end.

A flickering light may be caused by a loose or dirty connection, or by a short circuit. And a dead light may be due to the same causes.

The ammeter will quickly show whether a flickering light is due to a loose connection or a short circuit. If, when the light goes out, the ammeter reading is reduced, the cause is a loose connection. On the contrary, if the reading is increased, the trouble is produced by a short circuit.

If a dead light is caused by a short circuit this fact will be indicated by the ammeter, which will show discharge even after the bulb is removed. But if the dead light is due to a broken connection, or a loose connection, no indication will appear on the ammeter even when the bulb is in place.

Perhaps the simplest way to locate a short circuit is to disconnect the wires in the circuit one by one, rubbing the disconnected and over its terminal so that it will give a spark if current is flowing. This search may be started at the lamp and continued back to the switch.

CHIPS FROM THE LOG CABIN

The biggest stone for the fireplace came by truck from Ogemaw county. Roscommon county has sent some of the best looking stones.

Herman Lundén, John Yuill and Marius Hanson showed the best technical knowledge in the use of the cant-hook.

Senator Karcher manifested rare proficiency in "log rolling."

Herman Butler's carefree manner with the cant-hook caused some apprehension among the audience.

MISS BINA M. WEST

First woman president of the National Fraternal Congress, will preside at the annual convention in Buffalo, New York, August 16-20. Miss West is supreme commander of the Woman's Benefit Association, with headquarters in Port Huron, Michigan. Ninety-four fraternal societies with total membership of more than 7,000,000 will be represented.

CARELESSNESS

A "Careful Crossing" campaign is being conducted by the railroads of the United States. This great effort to preserve human life should have the support of the entire public. Investigators have repeatedly pointed out that practically every grade crossing accident was the result of carelessness. Carelessness of the people is a factor to be abated by none save themselves. That explains why trespasser casualties have decreased but little, while there has been a varying increase in crossing accidents, amounting last year to 21 per cent. The railroads, it would appear, are doing their utmost to conserve human life and limb, but the great public, careless and heedless is not co-operating in the safety policy as it should and might.

TOURIST TRADE HELPS MARK THIS STORE'S BIGGEST DAY

Is the tourist business worth while?

The Louis Drug Store of Bay City answers the question emphatically in the affirmative.

On July 3, this year, the Louis Drug Company did the biggest day's business in its history. On July 5, this year, the same concern had the greatest kodak business in its history.

Says Otto F. Louis, of the Louis Drug Co.:

"Of course, the tourist business is worth while. Were it not for the tourist business, the Louis Drug Co. could not possibly have reached the peak business that it marked on the two days in July. It is one of the best contributing factors to our success in business. Any business man who is failing to encourage and foster this business is doing his business under a bad star. Tourists spend freely, pay cash and appreciate courteous service. Their patronage is decidedly worth while."

TAKING CARE OF 1926

President Coolidge is still fishing with fly and worm and for the fish in the lake. While a number of his wishes and ambitions gentlemen have been attempting to engage his interest in fishing in political rather than natural waters for 1926, he has ignored their efforts. Discussing Mr. Coolidge in 1926 is apparently one sure fire topic for publicity. In the words of the old adage, "The President is still fishing."

Even the smallest politician, in an arduous way, he reports, though he only shakes hands with the President, what he believes is the President's intention with regard to 1926, he is certain of first page publicity, in which, of course, he figures 90 per cent.

Once and for all, it might be said the President has made no declaration of any sort as to his intentions with regard to 1926, and furthermore, no matter how authentic or official these declarations may seem as filtered through a second party, there is no basis for any one of them. Mr. Coolidge today is looking after the interests of the United States during the current year of 1926. On January first he will begin to look after the interests of the year 1927.

His theory is that his primary job is to do the work which he finds before him, but there is no doubt these efforts of the small people to hitch their wagon to his star will continue. No word will come from him until he regards the time as ripe and proper, and then his decision, absolutely, may be, will be based absolutely on what he believes is best for the nation and will be free from any personal bias.

LOG CABIN OFFICE BUILDING IS DEDICATED BY OFFICERS

Members of the executive committee of the East Michigan Tourist Association and directors of the North-eastern Michigan Development Board gathered at Bay City July 20, for a ceremony in connection with the dedication of the new log cabin office building of the two organizations. A short business meeting followed a luncheon at which the present were the guests of the Bay City Rotary club. Motion pictures of the dedicatory exercises were taken. A report of the proposed Michigan Forestry extension, which will take place September 8 and 10, was made at the business meeting.

WHAT THE TOURIST BUSINESS MEANS

John C. Beukema, secretary of the Muskegon Chamber of Commerce, speaking of the tourist business, says:

"Measured in dollars and cents, the tourist business outstrips nearly every other business in the United States today. It is nearly five times the value of our annual wheat crop. It is more than twice the value of our annual corn crop."

"What is the tourist and resort business worth to the retailer? Muskegon is not a tourist town. It is primarily an industrial town. It is a well known fact that retail business in the average inland city slumps about 25 per cent during the summer months. Our check showed that some of the local stores last year showed that summer business was fully on a par with the best months of the year and in many instances outran the December holiday business."

"I quote from a letter: 'Why does our July and August business show up so well? Simply because we don't spend his dollars with us directly, but he spends it somewhere, as every man who travels knows, and in time part of it, at least, comes to us. It makes no difference to us whether the garage man, or the hotel man, or the restaurant keeper or the drug store man, or the movie man gets it first, so long as it is spent here.'"

"We made a check of bank clearings. The average monthly bank clearings in 1924 was $3,735,719.14. The bank clearings for the period July 16 to August 16 amounted to $4,162,917.96. This amount is 11 per cent more than the average month."

On a good ear of corn, one can count no detour.

PLAN FOR LARGE CROWD AT GAYLORD CLUB CAMP

200 Boys and Girls Expected to Enjoy 4 Days of Profit and Pleasure, August 17 to 20

Plans are nearly complete for handling the 200 boys and girls, members of the Boys and Girls 4-H clubs, who will gather for their first annual camp at the fair grounds in Gaylord, August 17 to 20, inclusive.

This camp is being put on under the direction of the state club department, but is made possible through the generosity of the Gaylord Chamber of Commerce, the Otsego County Fair Association and the Michigan Central R. R. All of these agencies are turning their resources over to the club department to put on the camp.

Some business interests of the Gaylord district are also putting part of their equipment at the disposal of the camp.

Every boy and girl, who is a member of a regularly organized boys' and girls' club, together with their local leaders in the district known as the Top O' Michigan are invited to attend. Entries have already been received from Alpena, Montmorency, Otsego, Emmet, Crawford, Charlevoix, Cheboygan and Presque Isle counties, and many more are expected. Many clubs are coming 100 per cent strong.

It is the plan of the club camp to bring the boys and girls of these counties together, giving them a chance to become acquainted with others in the work, at the same time giving them some real practical instruction in farming and home-making.

It is planned along the same lines as the camp which is held in Chatham each year. This camp started eight years ago with a little over 100 members, but last year had over 450 there for a week.

The only expense for those attending Camp Gaylord is $3.00 to cover the cost of meals for the four days. Each one is expected to bring his or her own blankets and toilet articles. The cots and mattresses are being furnished.

The program calls for about a half hour of morning exercises in the morning, then breakfast. After breakfast, clean up camp and bunk inspection. The rest of the forenoon will be given over to instruction work in livestock judging, dairying, potato growing, etc. for the boys; while the girls will be getting instruction in cooking, sewing and home-making in general. After dinner there will be demonstrations and judging contests until 3:30 when everyone will turn out for games, races, etc.

The evenings will be occupied with song fests, stunts, camp fires, etc.

No parents need worry about the safety of their children at the camp, as they will be under close supervision of members of the extension division of the county.

A centennial will be maintained at the grounds so there will be no need for them to leave the camp at any time.

E. M. T. INQUIRES INCREASE ONE-THIRD OVER YEAR 1925

Inquiries received by the East Michigan Tourist Association up to July 15, 1926, show an increase over inquiries received for the same period in 1925 of 33 1/3 per cent. This healthy increase in the number of inquiries is encouraging because of the extraordinary growth in competition for the patronage of the tourist and resort.

Authorities and experts who this year have given study to the evolution of the tourist industry report a sensational development in projects and campaigns to woo the tourist and resort. This is noted in the campaign being waged by the New England states, which are financed largely by state funds. In the western states, the campaign is being waged by Canada's campaign for the tourist has been especially aggressive this year.

Particularly keen is the competition in the middle west, a territory from which East Michigan draws a large proportion of its summer-time clientele. Sections in this area which have the slightest attribute to command the tourist and resort trade and some of them are pretty meagre compared with East Michigan's attributes are spending money to advertise for the vacationist.

Some of the older, long-established resort sections are feeling the results of the aggressive campaigns.

East Michigan is going forward despite the competition.

PRESIDENT MIXES WORK WITH VACATION

Newspaper observers at White Pine Camp, where the President is vacationing, report that instead of an eight hour day, he is running a ten hour day up to the top of the mountain. The President's private telegraphic wires direct to Washington, and the telephone trunk lines, there is no interruption in the daily grind of work. Twice a day letter bags are dispatched for Washington containing the mail, and it is given the same attention and carried on with the same exactness and correctness as the business of the day.

President view extended simply to the White House grounds instead of as now into the New York wilderness behind him. The President is fortunate in the fact that he secures a fine sense of enjoyment from the opportunity to work. Indeed, there is no denying, he would be a rather unhappy man if in any way he was shut off from this chance to carry on. Absolutely characteristic of the man, was the development of the fact that when Secretary Sanders had to take to his bed because of illness, and Mr. Clark, his confidential secretary, had to leave on a personal trip, in the emergency the President took all the mail himself and did the dispatching of it at first hand and without any intermediaries.

TAXES

Those persons who find that they have to pay more taxes, due to a higher assessment, on property they rent to tenants will naturally increase their rents as a rule, although some do not. The taxes are generally passed along to the renter of the property, that is, the owner tries to get a certain percentage for his investment in a property. The federal government was, of course, in a position to lower taxes, for the federal government bore the expenses of the war, and with the war ended, the expenditures were lighter. But even so, the increase in the cost of state and local government is more than the decrease in the federal government's share of the war's expenses. Between tax, paying seasons of the year is a good time to study this perplexing problem.
